

Committee and Staff

○ Trust in Staff ○ Involvement in Direct Ministry Decisions

As trust in staff increases the committee's involvement with direct ministry decisions.

Trust increases through:

- Results.
- Exposure to thought process.
- Exposure to how time is invested.
- Collaboration and Teachability.
- Proven competence and character.

As committee involvement decreases in direct ministry decision making our role is narrowed to 8 functions listed in attachment, strategy, support.